Dedication

To lifelong learners and doers.
You're changing the world every day.

Five reasons why you'll love the Five Minute Journal

1 It's the simplest, most effective thing you can do every day to be happier. It's been proven over and over again that shifting your focus to the positive can dramatically improve your happiness. The key is consistency. With a positive quote every day, a weekly challenge and a structure to help you focus on what's good, you'll find The Five Minute Journal to be a great way to start and end the day.

2 It's built on proven principles of positive psychology. Somehow, it took psychologists about 80 years or so to realize it's better to focus on positive behavioural traits as opposed to depression, anxiety and perceptual disorders. This journal has been created by combining practical elements that can make the difference in your life. You've been spared the hours and weeks of moving through dense academic jargon. It's all here and made easy for you to implement in your daily routine.

3 It's a journal for people who don't write journals. If you're the kind of person who always wanted to write a journal, but life, excuses and email took precedence, look no further. The Five Minute Journal was designed for you. Whatever your excuses for not keeping a journal are, this notebook will eliminate them.

4 You'll have a snapshot of your days, weeks, months and years. When was the last time you saw pictures from a few years ago? Did you pause to feel the nostalgia and smile silently to yourself? Imagine if you could have the same experience by just flipping to a certain day on a specific year in your life, you could zoom in on who you were, what you did and how you felt on that day. It'll be your own chronicle of memories, ideas and dreams.

5 Have a problem sticking to a commitment? Good. You will love The Five Minute Journal. Inside you'll find tips and tricks to foolproof your commitment to write frequently. How often do we shirk away from a commitment that's good for us? Overweight doctors, procrastinating professors and unfaithful presidents prove this point. You'll discover simple, effective actions you can take to stay the course. You'll get in the habit of writing this journal every day and focusing on positive changes in your life.

It's all possible. In under five minutes a day.

Those who don't believe in magic will never find it.

- ROALD DAHL

The Five Minute Journal is not a magic pill.
Although, there is certainly some magic at work here.

You still have to do the work in the real world.

Get out of your comfort zone.

Take action and make magic happen.

This journal is your guide.

You are ready.

THE CONCEPT

The Five Minute Journal is like a toothbrush for your mind. You write it first thing in the morning and last thing at night.

Amongst an endless stream of negative news, work, and personal problems, the Five Minute Journal helps you focus on the good. It is your mental insurance policy against negative thought loops.

A 2003 study by Emmons and McCullough found that keeping a daily gratitude journal leads to not just an increased sense of well-being but also better sleep, willingness to accept change, and also helped lower symptoms of physical pain.

Through a simple daily format, the Five Minute Journal will help point out the little blessings to make you smile each day, create direction in your days, and track your progress.

The Five Minute Journal is the simplest, most effective thing you can do every day to become happier.
